

Exercise 1: Order the following positive and negative adjectives. (ordene los adjetivos en positivos y negativos)

Yummy - yucky - not very good - delicious - disgusting - lovely - nice - good - horrible - awful - tasty

Yummy-delicious-lovely-nice-good-tasty

Yucky-not very good-disgusting-horrible-awful.

Exercise 2: Write sentences about your likes and dislikes. Justify using the above adjectives.

Watch for singular and plural. (escriba en su cuaderno acerca de sus preferencias justificando con cada adjetivos sin repetir, 11 oraciones en total)

Examples: I like chicken because it is tasty / I don't like peas because they are disgusting.

Las respuestas de los alumnos pueden variar según los alimentos que ellos escojan.

1. I don't like fish because it is disgusting.
2. I like pizza because it is tasty.
3. I like french fries because they are delicious.
4. I don't like cake because it is not very good.
5. I like ice cream because it is yummy.
6. I don't like chicken because it is awful.
7. I like cheese because it is nice.
8. I don't like lemonade because it is horrible.
9. I like orange juice because it is lovely.
10. I don't like broccoli because it is yucky.
11. I like eggs because they are good.