The illustration is split into two parts. On the left, there is a storefront of a supermarket with a sign that says 'SUPERMARKET'. On the right, two women are shopping inside. One woman is pushing a shopping cart filled with various items, and the other is holding a basket. They are standing in an aisle with shelves of products like bananas, tomatoes, and bottles of water.

Every first day of the week Lisa goes to make some shopping and prepare a delicious dinner. First she takes a look into the fridge and she notices that there is just an onion, there are two lettuces, there isn't any egg, there are some milk and there isn't any mineral water. She finally arrives to the supermarket and goes to the vegetables section; Lisa buys oranges, pears, bananas, tomatoes and potatoes, then she walks looking for chocolates, hamburgers and mineral water. She ends shopping and goes home to prepare a delicious vegetarian dish. First she washes the potatoes, tomatoes, lettuce and onion. Peels the vegetables, chop the vegetables into small pieces and puts them into a bowl and mix.

A Trip to the Supermarket

Last weekend, Anna's husband Tom was driving to Asda to do the weekly shopping. Before he left, Anna made sure she gave him the long list of groceries he had to buy. Once he arrived at the supermarket, he parked the car and started shopping straight away. The first thing on the list was a head of lettuce, a bunch of bananas and a box of tomatoes. Then he went looking for two boxes of corn flakes, a jar of strawberry jam, a bag of sugar and a dozen of eggs. He remembered that they needed a bottle of olive oil and tins of soup. Feeling a bit thirsty, he picked up a few cans of Pepsi and a carton of orange juice. Looking at the list once again, he still needed to pick up a bag of frozen vegetables and chips. That evening, they were having sandwiches for tea, so he chose a nice loaf of bread and slices of cheese. Last on the list was kitchen role, a tube of toothpaste and a bottle of shampoo. Once he finished, he felt a bit hungry, so he chose a bar of chocolate and a bag of crisps.
