CUADERNO DE ASIGNATURA CON LETRA CLARA.

Clave de SOL: La nota ubicada en la segunda línea recibe el mismo nombre de la clave. Es la que vemos en un tema escrito para guitarra o flauta y es una de las más usadas.

Clave de FA: La nota ubicada en la cuarta línea es el FA. La vemos en los temas escritos para piano (pentagrama superior mano derecha clave de sol y pentagrama inferior mano izquierda clave de fa), y es otra de las más usadas.

Clave de DO: El símbolo que representa a la clave de do, está formada por dos C al revés, una encima de la otra. Esto es porque en la notación anglosajona, la C representa a la nota do. Esta clave tiene cuatro posiciones posibles, en la primera línea, en la segunda, en la tercera o en la cuarta, aunque las más utilizadas son las que se sitúan sobre la tercera o cuarta línea. Como generalidad, se usa para representar sonidos medios. Se usa para la música para violas, a veces para trombones y para música vocal antigua.
